“ When I was about 4 I swallowed a chicken bone and choked on it
He held me by my legs and shook me till it came out.
So at least twice
hes the reason I'm here

“ I remember when we first met Lara's new step-father long ago when all our kids were little. David was a quiet but strong and supportive presence at all of the family get-togethers. He became much more than a step parent or step grandpa as he showed the same affection to ML's as he did to his kids. I am sorry for your loss. He was a kind man. I am glad he was with Mary-Louise and the family for so many years.
Sincerely, Casey (&Hank) Jones

“ I didn't get to know David except through his wife, Mary Louise's eyes. There has always been one thing that sticks in my mind: the unconditional LOVE she has for him and I know he has for her. I purposely wrote in the present tense because I believe the body might die, but the soul and love are always with each of them. Mary Louise, your dedication to Dave is an example of your marriage vows. May you find Peace in that and in your Faith.
May David rest in Peace without any more suffering in the presence of our loving Father.

“ The one thing that sticks in my mind is that every time Sherry would talk to David on the phone he would always ask, "how is Jim". I will always remember that Dave. Go rest in peace Dave.

“ He loved you guys and would always talk about you, hoping we'd get together again one day. No doubt about that, we will.

“ There are so many memories I could share, but I wouldn't even know where to begin. Dave was my step-daddy. He was like a father to me from the moment he and Mom married. His love was unconditional. All our conversations began with "Hey Old Man!" "What do you want Brat?" And, they always ended with, "I love you." I love you Old Man. I'm going to miss you!

“ I have been blessed to know Mary Louise both professionally as a coworker and as a friend. David was already coping with some health problems when I helped walk their dog at the Assisted Living when Mary Louise had a knee injury. Then at the apartment, his health declined further, but his spirit never flagged. He was always kind and welcoming, despite the pain and difficulty walking, and would add a joke or tease the love of his life. As she and I packed and moved them from the apartment back to their home over many months, Mary Louise helped me understand the meaning of love in action.. for God, family, and her husband. She was not just a caregiver and friend to him, but a loving and devoted wife. She is a wonderful example of how life can be good despite challenges; that faith, hope and joy are real. David's sweet "amen" after praying with Mary Louise fills my heart with peace and relief, knowing they will meet again in Heaven in God's perfect timing. He will be deeply missed by all that knew and loved him! May you all be comforted by happy memories as he will always live on in your hearts and memories until you meet again in Heaven. Until then, please let us know how we can help during this sad time.

“ Obe thing I will remember most is his love for his family.
He would have done anything for anyone. But for his family.....he would nice mountains.
You are missed every day.

The words I will never forget him saying were
" it sure is nice to be loved"

“ David was my younger cousin. He was always shy and kind. I have so many wonderful memories of him. He always had a shy grin on his face. As mentioned before one of my most memorable moments, was when we were walking down a Street in West Carrollton, and a train blew its whistle, David was afraid of trains back then, He leaped up into my arms knocking me right down on the sidewalk. He was younger, but I tended to be kind of small.

I remember coming to visit David and Mary-Louise at their house in Centerbillr, and He was sitting on a Lawn chair in the garage when we pulled up, he said he enjoyed sitting out there watching the cars go by.

I have such Great Respect and Pride for David 's service to our Country! He was a True Hero and was awarded a Purple Heart! He did not like to talk about that time and all that went on in war.

I will Love and Miss him Forever, Wait for me by the Eastern Gate David. Till we meet again!

I Love You,

“ Dave told me he got his southern accent from imitating Andy. He did it so much it stuck.

“ When David and I were kids he said something to me that touched my heart and I will always carry it with me, He said Tony, when we grow up can we go to the drive-in together and hang out and see a movie? Just the fact that he wanted ME to hang out with him meant something to me I'll never forget. Tony Scott

“ I loved it that you two got to be so close. When he was in the nursing home, he was reminiscing about going to restaurants with the 4 of us.

Mary-Louise - July 29, 2017 at 12:13 PM

“ The memory I will always carry with me is David and I had this thing where we called each other "brat" When I first met David and MaryLouise he said hi brat, and it stuck every single time I seen him and in return started calling him brat and he would get so tickled and do that little grin/chuckle thing he did David will forever be in my heart! I miss you,Brat! Wanda Scott

Wanda Scott - July 29, 2017 at 09:37 AM

“ You had each other's number right from the start

Mary-Louise - July 29, 2017 at 12:16 PM

“ David was my brother and I have many memories of him, but one that really stands out is when I was going to get married, mom was out doing things and David came home from the service to attend my wedding. I asked him if he wanted me to fix breakfast for him and he said yes. I did not know how to cook so I burnt his eggs. He said "I feel sorry for your husband." I am so going to miss him. His humor was dry and his heart was big. Rest dear brother, we will see you in heaven.

“ I met David Scott when he worked maintenance at Wayne Estates and I was a tenant. He was in the work room tilted back on a chair with his hands behind his head and a mischievous twinkle in his eyes and a cat-that-just-ate-the-canary smile. I took one look and a crazy thought entered my mind: "I'm going to marry that man, some day" it said. That didnt seem a possibility when the complex changed management and they all left. Several months later I ran into the old manager and she said that Dave wanted my phone number. Then she told Dave that I sent him my phone number and wanted him to call me. The rest, of course, is history. Here we are almost 26 years later saying good bye to the love of my life. How I'll miss those blue eyes and that southern accent (which no one else in his family has), the multiple times a day he would spontaneously say "I love ya, Old Woman", and the way he'd close his eyes in exasperation at my corny jokes. We've been on a roller coaster all these years, finishing raising some kids, in and out of the hospital with serious life-threatening illnesses and the fun times making weekend trips and one time making a 6 week trip to Florida.It was a roller coaster ride alright. But what a ride! Thanks for the memories, my love. Til we meet again in the Presence of Our Lord. In the meantime, say a little prayer for me.
