“ Dear Donna and Family,

Was very sorry to read in the paper about dear Louise. Seem strange to me that I have been thinking of calling her for the last several months and than this happens. Should learn a lesson from this and do something when you think about doing it. I hated missing her birthday party but afraid it just didn't work out.

Think of many of the good times we had while she worked at Schottco. Will and have missed your mother and father's smile and friendship. Afraid the dinner crowd fell apart when she moved. I tried a couple times but got no response from the Cincinnati crowd.

Remember the good times and be thankful for your wonderful parents.

“ Donna, Bob, Ryan and Christopher,

Please know we are praying for you at this time. As you adjust to your mother's earthly absence, remember she will always be in your hearts.
