“ Dear Mom, I can never thank you enough for all of your love and support. Whenever I would worry you told me that everything works out for the best and quit worrying so much, you worry like your father. Well, this is true. I love you Mom and I know you are with God, but I miss you already. You made our home happy, clean, and loving. You kept the yard work immaculate, you loved for the outside work really paid off, I hope I do half as good as you. Please help me with it, and of course Dad please help also. Love you always Mom, Michael.
