“ My father was not an easy man, but I know he always did what he felt was best for us. His traditional upbringing in a different era made it a challenge for him to be as warm and open as I would have liked, but he always worked hard and sacrificed for the well being of his family. His guarded and independent nature may not have earned him a great many friends, but anybody who really did know him know what an honorable and honest man he truly was.

I wish to thank the good people at Schlientz-Moore & Reis for handling this service with such grace and dignity and for reaching out to me in this difficult time.
