“ Alex was a kind and generous soul, he is remembered with so much love. My thoughts are with his family.

“ Alex was my first friend. I was at his house everyday growing up. We had so many fun times. We would pretend and go to a make believe world called Gordo Land ( the dog next door was named Gordo). We loved to play basketball and ride his power wheels car. I remember going with him and his dad to Dominos and eating a bite pizza dough. I thought that was the coolest thing ever. I was with him when he went to the store to buy Patches( his dog) for Nicole's Birthday. His parents had to make sure he wasn't allergic. I had sleep overs at his house, and we would count all the pennies he had in his HUGE coke piggy bank. We would pretend his bunk beds were pirate ships and the floor was covered with sharks. We wouldn't be able to touch the floor or sharks would eat us. He was a wonderful friend.

“ When I go out my front door I have a reminder of Alex. He was young and you were down at the farm. He and I went and dug up a trumpet vine and planted it to grow up the utility light pole. It is still there climbing and blooming until the wind blows it down sometimes and it has to start climbing again but it makes it back up with a little help. The blooms will be extra special to me now. That vine is like a life lesson. We climb and bloom until we fall through pain and heartache. But like the vine we can start climbing again with help from God The Master Gardener. Love You Aunt Lynda
