“ Angie and I attended high school together, and lived in the same neighborhood. We definitely got into some mischief together. I too have not talked to Angie in many years, and just went our own ways. However, I have not stopped thinking about her, caring about her, and wishing her well. I just found out about her passing this past Saturday evening (January 24th, 2015). Needless to say, I was very shocked and saddened at this horrible loss. She was too young. I remember her infectious laugh, smile, sense of humor, how outgoing and motivated she was, and the fact that she was full of spirit and optimism. She will be greatly missed, but never forgotten. I wish her family my sincerest condolences, and especially her children.

“ Angie and I were good friends many years ago. I had not talked to her in over a decade and am just now hearing of her passing. I am very sad and very sorry. She was a very positive person and always had a smile on her face, no matter how bad things were. She was a dreamer and a romantic and most definitely an adventurer. A few little things that I remember about her are that she knew every word to Pretty Woman and wanted to marry my dog because she loved his eyes. She was sweet and never mean. I'm glad to have known her. I hope she is at peace.

“ Dear Amy and Family, we are so sorry for your loss. We love you,
U. Gary & A. Sherry

1 Thessalonians 4: 16-18 For the Lord Himself will descend for heaven with a loud cry of summons, with the shout of an archangel, and with the blast of the trumpet of God. And those who have departed this life in Christ will rise first. Then we, who are alive and remain, shall simultaneously be caught up together with them in the clouds to meet the Lord. Therefore comfort and encourage one another with these words.

“ Angie I will miss u...To the family I am so sorry for ur loss

*Death is nothing at all.
I have only slipped away to the next room.
I am I and you are you.
Whatever we were to each other,
That, we still are.*

*Call me by my old familiar name.
Speak to me in the easy way
which you always used.
Put no difference into your tone.
Wear no forced air of solemnity or sorrow.*

*Laugh as we always laughed
at the little jokes we enjoyed together.
Play, smile, think of me. Pray for me.
Let my name be ever the household word that it always was.
Let it be spoken without effect.
Without the trace of a shadow on it.*

*Life means all that it ever meant.
It is the same that it ever was.
There is absolute unbroken continuity.
Why should I be out of mind
because I am out of sight?*

*I am but waiting for you.
For an interval.
Somewhere. Very near.
Just around the corner.*

All is well.

Nothing is past; nothing is lost. One brief moment and all will be as it was before only better, infinitely happier and forever we will all be one together with Christ.

“ There are no words to express my sadness. Angie was a most memorable part of my childhood...a very SPECIAL part of my heart. She was also there for me during my parents divorce, which was so hard for me, at such a young age. Angie was, and will always be a name that warms my heart~with much love & a very warm & wonderful friendship.
