“ I will never forget all of the times I spent at your home with you Debbie and your mom she always welcomed me into your home. I practically lived there a lot . We spent so much time together she was like a second mom.

“ Aunt Anna Mary always reminded me of Grandma Eads. Always willing to listen, she had a gentle smile, and a little "spunk". I know that she and my dad are watching over us 😊

“ Truly one of the sweetest ladies I have ever known. A kind word and smile for everyone who came her way, it just came natural for her. I was fortunate enough to have known Mary for the greater part of my life and have little childhood memories of the Lee family and she attended my wedding. Mary's smile lit up her entire little face and her eyes just twinkled with joy, contagious. She will be missed by every life she touched.

Sending love to all.
