“ I'm so sad to only hear of CAZ's passing just now. I missed the get together in November. Caz was one of my first friends in Colorado. We played cribbage and drank margaritas weekly. He is the reason I met my husband. I'm sharing this with our euchre community - we missed having him around and wish we had tried to get together more often. Caz will be missed.

“ I met my wife through knowing CAZ, skiing in Vail, Colorado. He invited me last minute and almost didn't go. If it wasn't for CAZ, I would have never met my wife Jennie. He was so very kind, I will miss his big laugh and just hanging out with him. Rest in Peace brother. Pat and Jennie
