“ We were friends with Evelyn when we attended St. Mark's Church. I would pick Evelyn up and we would go to choir practice together. I always enjoyed singing in the choir with Evelyn.
Our thoughts and prayers are with her family at this time.

“ I'm so very sorry to hear of Evelyn's passing. She was a friend and such a shining and smiling face in the choir and chime group at Hithergreen Center. She was a founding member in both groups and will be greatly missed. I am fortunate to have gotten to know her and heard her stories and expertise on just about any subject we could bring up. Such a sweet and kind heart - a real lady. I'll miss her very much.

Blessings to the family.
