“ We knew Imogene through our church gatherings at Livingston Care Center. Imogene always had a cheerful disposition. Though her ability to speak was limited, she would always take the time to encourage us or just let us know that she cared. Imogene's way of communicating this would be to make the kissing sound paired with two thumbs up. Her ability to love was never taken from her.

We miss her presence very much. We planted some pink flowers in front of our house in her memory. The flowers remind us daily of her sweet spirit.

Our hearts and prayers continue for your family.
