

Isabel Lugo-Garcia

February 21, 1946 - February 21, 2014

Isabel Eugenia Lugo-Garcia, 68, died on Friday, February 21, 2014 in Luquillo, Puerto Rico. Isabel was born in Mexico City, Mexico December 25, 1945. After growing up in Mexico, she became a naturalized U.S. citizen in 1999, and lived in Taos, New Mexico, Rio Grande, Puerto Rico, Athens, Ohio, Alexandria, Virginia and Bellbrook, Ohio. Isabel had a full, rich life. She lived and loved intensely. Her errors were almost always those of commission, not omission. She was able to say she had no regrets in life, except for the untimely death of her son Uriel. Isabel was much beloved as a mother and daughter, grandmother and granddaughter, as an aunt and niece, as a godmother and mother-in-law, and as a wife and friend. She was very generous with her time, her attention, comprehension and compassion with her family and many friends. Isabel could be demanding. She often had greater expectations for people than they had for themselves. She helped them expand their understanding of themselves and their possibilities. As a result, several people in various places where she lived considered Isabel their adopted mother. Even during her illness, Isabel found many moments of happiness. She never stopped being more concerned with the problems of others than with her own. She always thanked her friends and family for their phone calls and visits. She was grateful for the efforts of her doctors and nurses. In her last months she took the opportunity to say goodbye to her brothers, nieces and nephews, her best friends, and her grandchildren and daughter-in-law. And she accomplished her final goal of spending a few days with her son, Mauricio. Time that he needed to accept God's will. Life is short and fleeting. But Isabel made the most of her moments with us, and will be fondly remembered by many. Isabel is survived by her son Mauricio Millan Lugo of Culiacan, Mexico (wife, Manuela); her husband, Ricardo Garcia of Bellbrook; brothers, Carlos Lugo of Seattle, WA, and Eduardo Lugo, Jose Antonio Lugo, and Raul Lugo of Mexico City; and grandchildren, Jesus Octavio and Nelly Jatxiry, currently attending school in Bellbrook. The family will receive friends on Sunday, March 16th from 2:00 – 5:00 PM at Reis Legacy Center Meyer-Boehmer Chapel, 6661 Clio Rd., Centerville. In lieu of flowers, the family requests consideration be given to making a blood donation, or a contribution to PARE Este, Inc., PO Box 928, Fajardo, PR 00738, a charity dedicated to animal welfare in Puerto Rico.

“ Isabel was a dear friend who will always be with us. The lillies and hostas in our garden, a few of many thoughtful gifts from Isabel, are a constant reminder and loving memory of a truly loving and caring person. We think of her each day and feel so very lucky to have had6 her in our lives.

“ Isabel was a dear, kind lady whom I met through Diane and George B. She always had such a wonderful smile, and was grateful for life, for friends, for family. We all miss her joyful nature, although knowing that her spirit is now free to be with us always, and to be with her dear son is comforting and complete. May God Bless you always, Isabel.

“ "I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith: Henceforth there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge, shall give me at that day: and not to me only, but unto all them also that love his appearing." - 2 Timothy 4:7 - 8.

Saint Paul's letter to Timothy captures the essence of the Isabel I met in Luquillo, P.R., albeit for a brief time, but always felt as though I had known her longer in a spiritual sense.

Isabel - May the Lord's Light shine for you forever!

Ricardo and family - May the Lord bless you and your family with His love!

“ March 09, 2014

I met Isabel at our mutual friend Diane's and she was such a lovely and loving person.

She always had a smile on her face. Even when she was so sick, you would never have really known it.

I believe she is at peace now and with her son.

My deepest sympathy to her family. She will be missed by many.

“ The first time I met Isabel I fell in love with her kind soul and sweet nature.....I will always carry her in my heart.....

To Isabel's loved ones.....

Sometimes things happen and there's nothing anyone can say or do to make it any better....It just takes time....time to cry, time to heal, time to be....And even though there isn't anything we can do for you right now, please know we are here for you always, care for you deeply, and hope you know that you're never alone.

“ Hermanita, fueron incontables los momentos que compartimos, sé que nos volveremos a encontrar y que mientras tanto estarás al pendiente de nosotros.

Gracias por todo lo que compartiste conmigo y muchas más personas que no te olvidan.

Dear sister, there were many the shared moments, I know that we will meet again, but meanwhile I know you will be taking care of us. Thank you for all that you shared with me and many other people than remembers you.
