“ I am so sad to learn today that we lost Larry last August. The Christmas card I had sent to him was returned, with no forwarding address.

I knew this fine gentleman, as we both worked for the group division of the Mutual of Omaha Companies. I always looked forward to events we would be mutually attending. He had a quiet funny sense of humor and had a way of making whomever he was with feel as though they were the only person in the room.

He was a gentleman, a professional and one of the best human beings I have ever known.

My heart goes out to you, the family that he cherished -----and to all of us that were so privileged to know him.

Thank you, Larry, for sharing your goodness with us all.
