“ Jerry and I would have a standing joke that we needed to go to Wal-Mart so we could visit with Phyllis and Layton, cause everytime we went, we always would run into them and stand in the isles and visit. After our Sunday service, we would joke around and say well we'll be seeing you at Wally world. I remember also praying for Layton beginning at Franklin Street Baptist church (now MSBC) as Phyllis and I have been in the same class since we joined. She never gave up on him to make a decision for salvation, that is true love and when his grand daughter Jessica spoke to him and he did all the angels in heaven rejoiced as well as all of his friends and family. Our class will truly miss his smile and joking nature. His family will continue with his legacy and Heaven has gained an incredible man of God.
