“ Jimmie and Phyliss were like another set of Grandparents to me. They always had stories to tell. They liked their doughnuts on Sunday mornings and Phyliss's favorite was the peanut butter longjohn from Bill's. She had no filter and she might call you a DumbA. She was definitely an ornery lady. My life is much richer having known both Jimmie and Phyliss. Rest easy in Jesus's arms. Say hello to Jimmie and Tab for me. I will miss you. Love you. ”

“ Beautiful lady. Loved seeing my kids run into church to sit with her and Jimmie and share doughnuts and conversation. She always had a smile and encouraging word! ”

“ Many memories of this sweet lady. She had a special love/hate relationship with my husband John. He always had his camera taunting her. Trying to get pictures of her eating her Sunday morning donut. A member of the 'liars' table @The Gathering. We spent many Sundays listening to stories. If you weren't careful, she might call you a D A!! Love and will miss this woman. Say Hi to John for me. Prayers for comfort for her lovely family.* ”

“ What a beautiful lady inside and out. When I would greet people at the worship center I would see her coming with her big smile and with hugs. She and I would dance a little as she arrived and just have great conversations.❤️
She always had a special place in my heart .

“ Phyllis always sat in front of us at church . She loved hearing Tim’s voice . She loved peanut butter cookies so it was a joy to bring these to her. We always loved teasing her and vice versa. She knew “how to give it back” 😊she was a joy and will be missed by so many. I’m so glad Tim and I had many joyful times of sharing around the lobby tables . Now they can share in heaven . Miss you Phyllis❤️
