“ I just heard today of my longtime friend Phyllis passing when I called her and some one else had her number.. So sad She was one I could always talk to about anything from politics to good books or to get advice and we always had a few laughs... I will miss her..Have a large painting of hers on my wall....identical image of an impressionist painting
....Goodbye. my dear friend.

“ My mom, Katie Holcomb (Kathleen Schmitz) and Aunt Phyl were more than family, they were dear friends. Phyllis was the maid of honor at my Mom and Dad's wedding. I have many fond memories of coming to Dayton to visit Aunt Phyl. She was always good for a laugh and yes, as Mike pointed out, a good martini! My mom has a couple of her paintings hanging in her room, and they are so beautiful, just like Aunt Phyl. I know she is up in heaven giving them all a good run for their money! “ I loved visiting with my Aunt Phyllis after I retired. It was wonderful hearing all her stories about our family. She was always so kind and caring and always enjoyed a good laugh. She was a great artist and loved painting by all the paintings she had on almost every small space on her walls in several of her different rooms at her retirement home. She will now be able to have one of her favorite drinks her martinis whenever she wants.
