“ Ron was the best. We tried to outshout each other with "Get your Dayton Daily Newspaper" at NCR on opposite corners of Steward and Rubicon. We were friends since 7th grade at Holy Angels. At Chaminade there was the morning meetings at Borchers Ford with girl friends. Although I moved from Dayton, we would keep in touch when I visited family in Dayton. Ron and our youngest son Jimmy who has Down's Syndrome really hit it off. Jimmy was always as happy to see Ron as I was. When my sister called to tell us of Ron's passing today, Jimmy immediately got the cue stick Ron had given him. He also called Fr. John (Jimmy is one of his regular alter servers) and wanted to make sure Fr. John would remember Ron at the Saturday Mass in New York.
Phyllis, our thoughts and prayers are with you and your family.

“ I send my Deepest Condolence and Prayers to the Edsall Family. I worked for Ron at Delco products. What a splendid person he was. I can remember him storming out of his office when a issue would arise with his notorious cigar going from one side of his mouth to the other,he was such a joy to work for.I told him one day he was nothing but a Big Teddy Bear. He smiled and walked away. Always willing to help others in need. You will be missed Big Guy....
