“ Mr. Rice, Moe, Fran, Lucy and Family,

I am so sorry to hear of Mrs. Rice's passing. She was a wonderful lady and my heart holds special memories of times spent at your home with Lucy and the rest of your family. While it is never easy to say goodbye to our loved ones, we can hold tight to the the Lord's promise that if we live for Him we will all be reunited will our loved ones some bright morning. Please know that you are all in my prayers and I send my sincere condolences. Rest in Peace Mrs. Rice, and someday we will meet again where age and sickness won't cause our bodies to grow weary. I love you all, and pray the God will give you sweet peace and comfort each of you as only He can.
