“ My thoughts and prayers go out to the Murphy family. Timothy was my 2nd cousin that I connected with through a family website. Timothy's Dad, Mom and grandmother were a big part of my life growing up. Timothy was so proud of his children and I enjoyed each and every photo/video that he posted. Rest In Peace cousin.

“ I have known Tim for almost 30 years. He was always available at a moments notice to lend a hand. He was kind and unselfish. May the grace of our Lord and Savior grant your family peace and comfort in this most difficult time.

“ A Prayer For All Our Tears

Dear Jesus,

Today, I cry tears that mean a hundred things at once, happy and sorrowful and desperate and hopeful. I trust You to sort them out as You catch them, to hear and answer each prayer they represent.

I cry for those of us left behind, for the lonely ones with hollows in our hearts. I ask You to comfort us, give peace, restore hope, and lavish us with love, family, and belonging. In the depths of loss, meet us with Yourself.

I cry for the legacy this loved one leaves, for the ways the world has been made different by their presence, for the memories that become both more beautiful and more painful on this side of death. And I pray that the work You have accomplished in this remarkable life will grow deeper, wider, and stronger in the days to come, uninhibited by a weak opponent like death.

I cry for those who haven't yet accepted Your invitation into eternal life, for those who grieve without hope today. I pray for awakening in their hearts, for a stirring that draws to You. I pray for more attendees at the grand reunion scheduled in the coming eternity.

I cry for all the ways the world has gone wrong, and for all the ways You're making it right again. I ask that You make me part of Your work in bringing the kingdom of heaven to earth.

I cry knowing You are here with me. And because You are here, even my tears have meaning.
