

Wanda L. Knoop

October 19, 1942 - March 9, 2017

Wanda L. Knoop, born October 19, 1942, went to be with her Lord and Savior on March 9, 2017. Preceded in death by her parents Martha Jane (Bowman) and Carleton K. Moore, and her beloved sister-in-law Pat Knoop, Wanda is survived by three daughters, Amy (Thomas) Fischer, Lori (Stephen) Hensley, and Patti (Michael) Miller; six grandchildren, Matthew and Hannah Schenkel, Isaac and Braden Hensley, and Samuel and Jacob Miller; her sister, Judy Helfinstine; and many nieces and nephews. She worked as a registered nurse for 42 years and retired from the NICU at Miami Valley Hospital after 22 years of service. A celebration of her life will be held at Covenant Christian Center, 3274 Pennyroyal Road, Franklin, on Monday, March 13, at 7 PM. Wanda wishes for her guests to wear bright and happy colors to celebrate her new life with her Savior. At her request, please, no flowers. Donations may be made to the Covenant Christian Center. Arrangements in care of Reis Legacy Center Meyer-Boehmer Funeral Home.

“ I'll never forget, when my husband Terry and I came to visit Wanda, she made the most amazing lasagna. It was sooooooo good my picky eater son ate it, and loved it, too.

“ Blessings and condolences to the Knoop family. So many precious lives were touched by her on their very first days in our world. I remember her as a welcoming, loving, hard working, and thoughtful mom...with a witty and fun sense of humor. My thoughts are with you and your entire beautiful and fabulous family.
