“ Thinking back to my first visit in the Hargis home.

I was no stranger to large family's! I still remember the hubub. Every second filled with something.

That was 34 yrs ago...and Billy was just a little guy...sweet cheeked and big smile! Amazingly he didn't get swallowed up by the hubub, instead he just melted into it.

And nothing ever changed!

Still that same smile...that easy going, smooth and steady guy.

I will miss the simplicity of his presence and am praying we all find peace, rest and justice in these days of transition.

Never easy to see someone so loved go so soon. It is not hard to love one in Heaven...the hard part is living here without,them. Only way I know is moment by moment, day to day, in God's Arms of love and grace.

“ Bill was a friend and co-worker. I enjoyed his wonderful, generous, kindheartedness. I am shocked by his early passing. He had so much to give from his warm personality.
He was too young to leave us, but the Lord must have a plan for him in Eternity.
We will miss you a lot, Bill! - Phil Reed
